David's News

Dear Worshippin'
Warriors,
Do NOT BECOME WEARY IN WELLDOING!!! This is a significant time of transition for the Kingdom of God! Thank God we are alive to see it. Below are some comments from the recent trip to the heart of Australia with banners where the children led in repentance, prayer and celebration. It was a breathtaking time! Pentecost is again stirring hearts - and banners!

David!

Tracy said ... A teenager and I traveled from Kalgoorlie to Uluru, to participate in the weekend and we just had such an awesome time. It was fantastic to be able to use the banners and also so amazing to stand back and watch them all being used in worship at the meetings.

Alison said ... I was at the united at Uluru weekend. I loved seeing the bright picture of the rivers of life flowing from Uluru

that Bec drew on Sunday morning. While

I was shopping I saw a postcard of rain and a storm over
Uluru. It will remind me every day that

God's glory has descended over the heart of Australia and His rivers of life are flowing from Uluru out to the rest of Australia.

My 5 year old, Joanna, was so blessed by the banners.
She was the bold little girl who continued to wave banners throughout the Sunday service. She chose the 400 year banner even though she didn't know what it was. She also chose the Lion resting. What a blessing! Alison M Loftus

PENTECOST DAY MOVE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

In our church on Pentecost day, we had an awesome move of the Holy Spirit. We were asked three months ago to prepare something for Pentecost day. The service started with two women singing a song called 'Praise Song' and then we moved into worship singing the songs 'Sweet Wind', 'Great South Land' and 'Let Everything That Has Breath'. A young teenager who choreographed her own dance, ministered to us all and this was followed by Bible readings.

The sermon followed, titled: 'Spiritual Gifts and Spiritual People'.
People started spontaneously praying for families, the lost, pastors, indigenous Australians, City of Casey, the Persecuted Church, Solomon Islands, East Timor, and West Papua. People were worshipping our Almighty Lord by waving banners and dancing under the power of the Holy Spirit. We also had an exhibition of paintings, pictures and drawings featuring the Holy Spirit.

I had bought the Promises Flag six months ago. I believe God told me to present it to our Pastor on Pentecost day. As I presented this anointed banner, the Holy Spirit shook our church, breathing new life and fresh anointing on all the saints present. It reminded me of a modern day version of the description in the bible of Pentecost Day. Ray
