Orlando Conference

The conference in Orlando was beautiful. It's awesome to watch this ministry and to see people being delivered and set free. Wielding worship banners at the Orlando conference, gave me insight into the beauty of the body of Christ and the powerful anointing that was released as we corporately yielded and humbly submitted. It also showed me the destructive power a rebellious and unsubmitted spirit can cause. As the banners encircled the people, there was a "circle of safety" placed around them, there was order established (a must in God's army) and Kingdom business was accomplished. There was so much love imparted and shared in meeting people from across the globe and feeling at one with them, through the banner ministry. Maria, IL USA Read the full story.

Banners in Israel

What a buzz it was being in Israel. One of the first things that 'hit' me was at the first Praise & Worship time they have every day at Beit Immanuel Guest House: Here I was, in God's own country (literally!) and what did we sing? Many songs by Australians (in English and Hebrew and Russian) and we worshipped using Australian worship banners. It was so awesome! I had two lovely weeks with my relatives who are volunteering at Beit Immanuel

Guest House at Jaffa. The family work hard there, doing the house-keeping (cleaning, making beds, preparing meals) for the guests. I then headed back to Yad HaShmona (near Jerusalem) which became the base for the Trumpet Tour, run by a local Messianic Jewish Evangelist, Jacob Damkani and his wife Elisheva. Here I joined with about 30 people from 12 nations from around the world, mostly European (German-speaking). We had three days of wonderful teaching & training, including a very moving trip to Yad v'Shem (Holocaust Memorial). I had been to this place with the UK people, but it was a completely different experience going there with the Germans! We saw holy sites, walking through the streets of Israel waving flags and banners, singing Hebrew Songs and proclaiming Peace over Israel, letting them know that the Gentiles love them and are behind them during this time. Della, Toowoomba AUST Read the Full Story

Mongolian Worship Festival

The Worship Festival began with a Mongolian playing a traditional horse head violin. He sang a song in his native tongue while he played. Then 12 riders on horseback appeared on the horizon at the top of a hill. Each of them carried a banner that represented the concepts of God, the nations, the attributes of God, declarations, and fruits of the Spirit. The riders came down the hill and stopped midway. Several dismounted and raised a cross to the Most High God. Then they continued the trek down the rest of the hill towards the camp grounds. The riders made their way to the stage. There they presented their flags and placed them at the front of the stage. The closing ceremony was very much like the opening but in reverse. First each flag was displayed and the meaning was announced. Then the Mongolian horseback riders rode up to the front of the stage. Here they dismounted to collect their flags and remounted to present them. Then just as the sun was setting they rode up to the top of the hill, paused long enough to look back over the campsite, and disappeared over the top of the hill. This represented Mongolians taking the presence of the Lord throughout their nation. Ashley, Colorado Springs USA Read the Full Story
